“ Aunt Cathy where do I begin...Ur smile Ur laugh everything about u. Growing up I could always remember u being there playing as if u were a kid yourself. U chasing dee or him chasing u. Singing Cathys clown to him every time it played r came across Ur mind. This is all just devastating and so unexpected. We all keep asking ourselves why. But no one has an answer. We will always remember u and miss u more than u ever know. It just won't b the same without u here to share your joy and laughter with everyone. Until we meet again I love u and fly high

“ Dear aunt cathy my heart is heavy and my mind is racing with memories of you. your all i can think about why you were taken from us i cant understand but am sure someday i will. God had a purpose for you here and now has called you home.cathy you always had a smile on your face and could change the darkest days for anyone with your laughter.you loved your family beyond measure i wouldnt trade a single moment tht i had with you for the world you always had a positive attitude and a calm about youself. ive never seen you angry you showed me love as an aunt since i could remember you whould always come get me every weekend to stay at your house and when i grew up you were constantly inviting me to visit. you loved children more than anyone i knew if there was a baby in the room you were holding and playing with it in a matter of minutes ,and now that your in heaven im sure your watching after all the children who are there.cathy im so proud to be your nephew and am glad to have spent the time with you i did. we were close and it breaks me knowing your gone. Aunt Cathy thank you for loving me thank you for always being there until we meet again I LOVE YOU!!!!...your nephew. jeff
